Gray Announces Nationally Syndicated Weekend Political Show with Greta Van Susteren

Atlanta, Georgia – April 8, 2019. . . Gray Television, Inc. (“Gray,” “we,” or “our”) (NYSE: GTN) announced today that it will launch a new weekly program this September called “Full Court Press with Greta Van Susteren.” Gray’s Chief National Political Analyst, Greta Van Susteren, will host and moderate the program from Washington, DC.

The new weekend political show will focus on how policy actions, political decisions, and national events impact local communities across the country through a mix of substantive interviews of newsmakers, roundtable discussions, and both on-the-ground and investigative reports from local stations outside the beltway. The show will tap a broad bench of Gray Television journalists from newsrooms across the country, including the award-winning team of Investigate TV.

Gray Chairman and CEO, Hilton Howell Jr., says that “Full Court Press” will showcase Greta’s no-nonsense, straightforward style. “We believe viewers will embrace Ms. Van Susteren’s firm but tough approach with elected and other leaders to bolster the trusted, quality news our viewers already depend upon,” said Howell. “Our goal is to provide critical information without bias to allow viewers to form their own opinions and reach their own decisions by exploring all sides of a complex issue.”

In addition, in August, Gray will launch “Full Court Press-Overtime” across multiple digital platforms. The website and OTT app will feature extended interviews, live streaming and user interaction, as well as links to additional related news content. “The digital components will give us instant feedback on topics and questions that matter most to viewers,” said Ms. Van Susteren.
