Gray Names General Managers for New Television Stations

Atlanta, Georgia – February 26, 2019. . . Gray Television, Inc. (“Gray”) (NYSE: GTN) announced its appointment of two new leaders for the television stations it is acquiring from United Communications, Inc. (“United”). With this announcement, Gray fills both open positions with managers who have experience in small and mid-size television markets.

In Watertown, New York (DMA 178), Gray appointed Eric Krebs as the General Manager of WWNY-TV (CBS) and WNYF-CD (FOX). Mr. Krebs has spent his entire professional career in television broadcasting and has held several positions in multiple markets over the years. For nearly the past two years, Eric has served as the General Manager / General Sales Manager for Gray’s Charlottesville television stations, and he was the stations’ GSM for the previous six years.

In Mankato, Minnesota (DMA 199), Gray named Ed Woloszyn as the General Manager / General Sales Manager for KEYC-TV (CBS/FOX). Ed started his career at Blair Rep Firm in Chicago. Thereafter, he worked in local television sales in Grand Rapids, Michigan; Quad Cities, Illinois-Iowa; Madison, Wisconsin; and Eau Claire/La Crosse, Wisconsin. He has served as the General Sales Manager for KEYC-TV since September 2016.

Both appointments will be effective on March 1st, when Gray commences operating the stations subject to United’s ultimate control, under a standard pre-closing operating agreement.
